Formed in 2014, "Great Snaith in Song" (the Great Snaith Choir) is already gaining a reputation for good music, beautiful harmonies, and fun. The choir consists of between ten and fifteen ladies and, on average, about four men. Musical accompaniment is provided by backing tracks.

Whilst the choir has a broad repertoire and can sing the hymns that you have chosen, we also offer secular music for weddings which includes, for instance, the following:

"Till There Was You"

- The Beatles

"Me and You"

- Kenny Chesney

"When You Taught Me How to Dance"

- Katie Melua

"The Wedding (Ave Maria)"

- Julie Rogers

"Love is All Around"

- Wet Wet Wet

"Kiss Me"

- Sixpence None the Richer

"You Do Something to Me"

- Paul Weller

The choir is happy to lead a congregation in singing, and to perform your favourite song(s) during, for instance, the signing of the register. Recent experience has shown that just having the choir present provides a fuller sound to the music within the church service (often guests are afraid to sing!)

Ask the Rector for details of how to book the choir, visit our Facebook page, call on the number opposite, or email us with your requirements.

The cost to book the choir for weddings in 2017 is £30.
